Gramling/Kennedy Strategy for Southern Victory

The removal of General Lee's monument from Lee Circle in New Orleans, the toppling and vandalizing of a Confederate Monument in Durham, NC, and the removal (without a vote of the people) of the Confederate emblem from the Georgia State Flag happened after our opponents implemented a well thought-out strategic anti-South plan. The South's failure of not having a well thought-out and executed strategic plan made our enemies' victory possible—in fact, it made it inevitable! It is time for Southern patriots to go on the offense—put our enemies on the defense. Now is the time for bold leadership or the history, heritage, and liberty of the South will be consigned to the P.C. dustbin of American history.

Bold leadership is what Paul Gramling is offering the SCV if he is elected the next Commander-in-Chief. He has assured the Kennedy Twins that his first bold effort will be to appoint Walter D. (Donnie) Kennedy as Chief of Heritage Operations for the SCV. With this in mind, Paul and the Kennedys have developed a "Southern Victory Campaign" to be instituted ASAP. For a more detailed review of the Southern Victory Campaign see page 2 of this newsletter.

One thing is for sure if Southerners continue doing the same things that we have been doing in the Southern Heritage Movement, we are condemned to utter defeat. One man alone cannot turn the tide of rabid anti-South activism but one man can provide the leadership needed to not only defend our Heritage but to regain that which has been lost. Gramling's Southern Victory Campaign is a long term, strategic effort to build not only a very positive and favorable attitude about Southern heritage but to grow the SCV to 50,000 members in four years and 100,000 in ten years. This campaign is a vast public relations (PR) effort which will only work if current SCV members "walk the walk" as well as "talk the talk." Every successful PR campaign depends on proper preparation of the pool of consumers—this is true for selling soap, cars, or a political campaign. We must avoid the temptation of "hiring an expert" and waste our limited resources (money) on maintaining said expert while our potential members know very little about us or our product. For the SCV, the pool of potential members is the general public of the South. Opinion polls prove it! (See page 4). We must be bold, we must think long-term, and above all, we must be willing to "walk the walk!" The first step is to elect Paul CIC, the next step is to join with us as we counter-attack!

Our Duty is to Vindicate the Cause

There is a big difference between vindicating a cause and apologizing for a cause; a big difference in meekly listing your Confederate ancestors and boldly proclaiming that your Confederate ancestors were fighting for the right cause—the cause of Southern Freedom! As SCV members it is our responsibility to vindicate the Cause for which our ancestors fought—even if it is politically incorrect and may cause some to label you as “confrontational,” or “extremists.” Current events should convince even closet Confederates that “the Cause of the South is now the Cause of all Americans.”

SOUTHERN VICTORY CAMPAIGN

As pointed out on page one, Paul Gramling and the Kennedy Twins are committed to instituting a public relations campaign dedicated to inspiring Southerners to defend our heritage, promote our Rights as Southerners, and restore Confederate flags and monuments which have been removed. As noted this will not happen overnight, after all, our enemies planned and implemented their dastardly anti-South plan over 25 years ago. As of this late date, we have but two choices: Go quietly into the shameful darkness of defeat or institute a long term strategic plan that will awaken our neighbors to the need of promoting and defending their Southern heritage. For men of honor the first choice is unacceptable, therefore we are advocating to SCV members the Gramling/Kennedy Southern Victory Campaign.

The objective of this campaign is to motivate SCV members and the general public of the South to become active defenders of our Heritage and Rights. At this time at least 60-70% of Southerners (this includes all, not just white people) have a positive view of the South. This number must not be allowed to dwindle. We must give these people positive reasons for loving the South. Also, we need to encourage these people to move from the status of passive supporters of their Southern Heritage to becoming active supporters of the South. How can this be done?

People who are involved in promoting a product, idea, or individual recognize the fact that information must precede organizing for that product, idea, or individual. With that in mind the Southern Victory Campaign via Radio Free Dixie will begin running one-minute pro-South ads on radio stations across the South. These ads will point the general audience to additional pro-South information on our You Tube channel, Web Site, Face Book, and other social media outlets. How shall this get done?

As Lt. Commander Gramling has pointed out, this cannot be a one or two-man project. To be a creditable campaign for our Rights (and a creditable threat to our enemies) this must be an effort supported by the membership of the SCV. With that in mind we propose to form the Confederate Legion. Initially we will seek 1,000 members from each of the three SCV Armies who will donate $50 a year. Of the money raised, ninety cents out of every dollar will be spent for positive Southern information. That amount of money is equal to the cost of one Coke per week for a year. Is that too much to ask of SCV members in order to take the fight to the enemy? The preceding is just the tip of the iceberg as to the total plan of the Gramling/Kennedy Southern Victory Campaign. Will you help?

The Netherlands—Seceding from EU

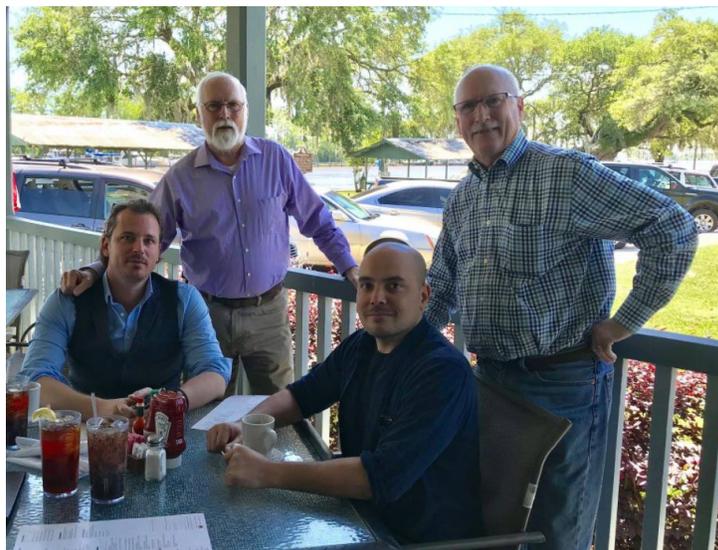

The photograph to the right was taken April 16, 2018. Cees van der Sande and Pim Boh are from the Netherlands. They were on a tour of Dixie and wanted to meet with the authors of The South Was Right! to discuss the similarities between the South's effort to remove itself from the Yankee Empire and the desire of many in the Netherlands to remove themselves from the globalist European Union (EU).

Cees van der Sande is the region five coordinator of Forum voor Democratie (Form for Democracy) a new political party in the Netherlands founded by Thierry Baudet an outspoken opponent of the EU's attack on national sovereignty. Some have labeled him the new face of European Alt/Right.

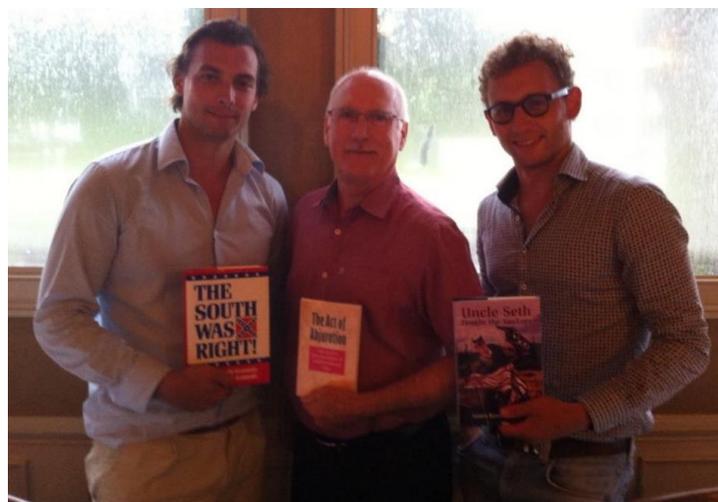

"Thierry Baudet is the leader of the Forum for Democracy (FvD), which he founded as a think tank in 2015. Transformed into a political party only six months before the March 2017 elections, the FvD won a surprising 1.8 percent of the vote, good for two seats. The Dutch electoral system is strictly representative, making it relatively easy for small parties to break through but almost impossible for any single party to win an absolute majority." <https://www.thenation.com/article/is-dutch-bad-boy-thierry-baudet-the-new-face-of-the-european-alt-right/>

Dutch & American Declaration of Independence

In 1581 the Dutch declared their independence from Spanish rule: "When a prince oppresses his people and reduces them to slavish compliance, the people, when authorized by the states, may legally disavow his authority and choose another prince for their defense." Almost two centuries later thirteen American Colonies declared: "When government deliberately seeks to reduce the people under absolute despotism, the people have a right, indeed a duty, to alter or abolish that form of government and to create new guards for their future security." The right of self-government has a long European history. The South Was Right! The war is not over until freedom is won!

The photograph and article below is from the September 2016 report of another visit from two other folks from the Netherlands.

Two European scholars came to New Orleans during the hot and humid days of July (2016) and wanted to meet one of the authors of The South Was Right! It was a most interesting meeting especially because they spoke perfect English but I am sure they had an interesting time understanding my Southern accent! I left the meeting very impressed with their love of national sovereignty in the face of European Union domination and their special interest in nullification and secession as a Southern political idea. As political scientists they stressed that from their vantage point it seemed that the South's best approach would be to press the issue of the Constitutional right of nullification and champion the right of secession only after the Federal government rejects the legitimate demands of state nullification. The reason was that it would allow time for the public to come to terms with the idea that they do indeed have the right to be a free and sovereign state.

The Cause Is Not Lost—We Are Winning In Public Opinion Polls!

Recent opinion polls have consistently demonstrated that up to 70% of people do not approve of removing Confederate monuments. Other polls have documented between 20 to 40% of people who still believe their state has the right to secede from the United States—especially polls taken in the South!

The fact that today so many Southerners still believe in the right of secession—even after generations of slanderous Yankee lies masquerading as standard American (Yankee) history—demonstrates an important point. It proves the point that in order for the Yankee Empire’s negative, anti-South propaganda to be effective, it must be overwhelming, continuous, and allowing no effective reply from the subjugated people. For the Yankee Empire’s propaganda to be effective, it must be total—it only takes a relatively small amount of truth to undo the result of the Empire’s negative propaganda. A dedicated effort of even a small number of Southerners could awaken, in the hearts of the subjugated people, a desire to be rid of their chains. Such a dedicated effort could awaken the desire to claim for themselves and their children the right to live under a government based upon their free and unfettered consent and to live in a nation where the moral values they cherish are respected and defended.

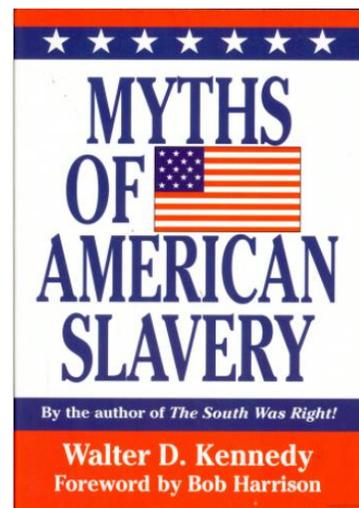

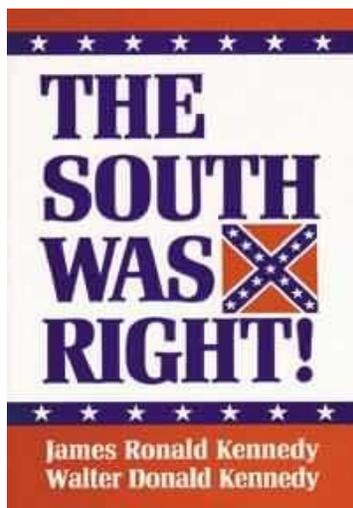

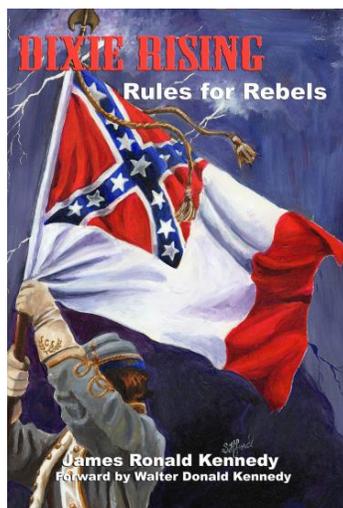

Imagine what the previously discussed opinion poll results would have been if, for the previous four years, there had been an active, organized effort to challenge the legitimacy of the Yankee Empire’s abusive rule of the South! Think about what a difference it would have made, not only in these recent polls but in the Southern society at large. Think about what a difference it would have made if there had been shadow governments established in even half of the Southern states for the past four years! Try to picture in your mind the difference it would have made if the Southern people had just one statewide elected official who would consistently use his office as a “bully pulpit” to encourage the people of the South to defend their moral social values, their Confederate heritage, their Confederate monuments, and their legitimate right to be the master in their own homes—the right of local self-government. This spokesman, occupying a bully pulpit, would be a true unreconstructed Southerner who would travel the South expounding the virtues of regaining the right to live under a legitimate government—a government that answers to the people of the sovereign states—and a leader who exhorts the people of the South to rise again in defense of their freedom.

Imagine the difference if the South had a spokesperson who would work for the best interest of the people of the South and not the best interest of crony capitalists on Wall Street and their donor-class running dogs in Washington, D. C. Imagine the difference in the poll results if an elected official had been traveling around the South denouncing the Yankee Empire as an illegitimate governing force! Think about the value of a true Southerner who is elected to high office but whose role in life is not to be a successful politician in the Yankee Empire’s political apparatus but to help to organize the people of the South and challenge the Yankee Empire on the national and international stage. What a difference it would have made! There would have been no massive movement to remove the Ten Commandments from public display, promote anti-Christian, hedonistic, vulgar lifestyles, nor would there be an ongoing campaign to destroy the last vestige of Southern history—instead, there would have been hundreds of Confederate flags posted on highways all across the South and more going up every month until freedom would be won! And any scalawag politician who betrayed the South would be made to pay politically at the next election or immediately via a recall petition. All of this “could have been,” but unfortunately, the South has lacked dreamers, visionaries, and nonviolent revolutionaries. The South’s political and Southern heritage leadership preferred to remain docile and pacified rather than risk being labeled “extremists,” or “controversial.” When faced with the choice of striking for freedom or the safe comfort of bondage, they have consistently made the coward’s choice and remained silent and pacified—good “patriotic” subjects and sycophants of the Yankee Empire.

“I Pledge Allegiance”

School children in Southington, CT in 1942 reciting the Bellamy Pledge of Allegiance in the era before it became customary to place hand over heart. The Bellamy Pledge was created post-War at the insistence of the Grand Army of the Republic in order to complete the work begun by Lincoln’s invasion and conquest of the democratically elected, peaceful, sovereign nation—the Confederate States of America. All empires, such as King George’s or Lincoln’s, claim to be indivisible!
