What Do We Do If

Hillary Wins?

If you can believe the polls, it looks like the American sheeple are going to elect yet another vicious, hate-filled, secular humanist as the leader of the Federal Empire. If that happens, the question is “what do we do?”

Traditional religious freedom for conservatives will be over by the end of her term; gun control will be moving into the confiscation phase; and those traditional areas with strong conservative voting patterns will be overrun with new voters drawn from various third world socialist nations—many of whom will harbor a violent hatred of Christianity. The GOP establishment and their crony capitalist donor class will be “at the service” of this Democrat president—just like they are for Obama. Dark days are ahead for us all!

Traditional business-as-usual political action has gotten us in this situation and it will not get us out! We need to meet in January 2017 and begin immediately to organize and put Project 2020 into action. An active irregular political warfare campaign is the only solution.

Trump Wins?

Too many people put their faith in electing “good” candidates and then hoping that they will “do the right thing.” Even if Trump wins, our troubles will not be over. The GOP establishment will do all within its power to limit Trump’s efforts to “make America great again.” The Wall Street and K Street donor class will use their friends in Congress to make sure that Trump is neutralized and perhaps they will be able to get rid of him in four years. Tea Party type of efforts to elect “good” conservatives to support Trump will be met with a flood of donor class money used to oppose our “good” candidates. Happy days will not be here again.

A Trump presidency will do for us the same thing as the Reagan presidency did. It will buy us time to organize at the local level and initiate a movement to reclaim the right of local self-government within our sovereign states enforced by real states’ rights including the rights of nullification and secession. Nothing of permanence came from the Reagan terms. We must not allow this opportunity to pass. We must organize for Project 2020.

Irregular Political Warfare—Project 2020

As explained in Punished with Poverty (to be released in December) the northern majority has always envied the South's wealth. From Colonial days to 1861 they busied themselves in efforts to confiscate Southern wealth to enrich themselves. Greedy northern capitalists became the genesis of crony capitalism in the United States. They allied themselves with radical abolitionists and taught northerners to hate not just slave owning Southerners but all Southerners! Their main goal during the invasion of the Confederate States of America was to exterminate all (black and white) Southerners and to repopulate the South with new emigrants and fellow northerners. Failing this they determined to exterminate the South's political power—a power that had so successfully resisted their demands for confiscatory tariffs prior to 1861. Their attempts to exterminate and re-populate the South were unsuccessful but it continues today in the form of anti-Southern heritage cultural genocide and re-populating the South with illegal immigrants. If we as a people are to survive we must begin a determined political struggle to regain our right of local self-government. We must give the enemy a battle that they have never before faced, using tactics that will favor our strengths while attacking them at their weakest points. Our task is to engage not in traditional political campaigns (the enemy's strong point) but to attack them using irregular political warfare.

By engaging in political irregular warfare, we leave the familiar and therefore comfortable political arena of conservatism, abandoning reactionary thinking and become revolutionaries! It is not our intention to “conservative” the current status quo—it is our goal to destroy the current status quo! Our overarching goal is to replace the illegitimate Federal Empire with a legitimate constitutionally limited federal government enforced by we the people of the sovereign state(s) via real states' rights inclusive of the rights of nullification and secession. For example; some conservatives may object that while they believe in the right of secession, they do not believe that a state in the union has the constitutional right to nullify an act of the Federal government. This line of argument fails because we do not intend to work within the confines of the current (perverted) “constitution.” Our goal is to establish a constitutional amendment acknowledging the rights of state nullification and secession within the United States of America or, if a constitutional majority of the states reject our legitimate demand, then we will reclaim the right of self-determination for we the people of the South in an independent and free Confederate States of America. It matters not in the least what Justice John Marshal said in an 18th century decision or what Alexander Hamilton claimed regarding implied powers in the constitution, etc. The past may be used as a guide but it shall not be used as a prison to fence us in with the mistakes of the past. One way or another—we shall make a new nation! [The preceding is taken from Dixie Rising—Rules for Rebels by Ron Kennedy. It will be released by March of 2017 as a guide for irregular political warfare needed to win our Freedom.]

One of the first and a bestselling book about the South's defense of real states' rights. Without real states' rights we the people have no way to defend our rights when those rights are oppressed by an unconstitutional federal government. The South was right because liberty was right in 1776, 1861 & today!

“There must be a radical reformation in the current, overgrown, unresponsive, tax and spend federal government. If those who are in control of the government in Washington reject the demands of the people for a government more respectful of our rights, then it will be faced with the prospect of the Southern people following the lead of Lithuania as we demand the right of self-determination.” The South Was Right! 1994. Project 2020 and Freedom!

GOODBYE RELIGIOUS FREEDOM

In a recent article from The Telegraph of London, Prince Charles' former secretary, William Nye, warns of an ongoing effort to shut down any display of Christianity by employees of the United Kingdom. Nye warned that due to the "secularizing spirit," Christianity was being systematically silenced and removed from public display. Nye expressed his belief that within the public service of Great Britain, Christianity and those expressing said faith were viewed as "odd and unusual." {See} <http://conservativetribune.com/sick-plot-christian-employees/>

When confronted with Great Britain's attack on Christianity, most conservatives automatically proclaim, "Thank God we have a Constitution with its First Amendment protection of freedom of religion." But think about it; if the modern sycophants of Lincoln can ignore and discount the Ninth and Tenth Amendments, what security do we have for the supposed protection of the First Amendment? In its 2016 report the United States Commission on Civil Rights informs Americans that religious freedom cannot be used for a basis of discrimination against homosexuals: "The phrases 'religious liberty' and 'religious freedom' will stand for nothing except hypocrisy so long as they remain code words for discrimination, intolerance, racism, sexism, homophobia, Islamophobia, Christian supremacy, or any form of intolerance" [emphasis added]. Martin Castro, Chairman U. S. Commission on Civil Rights, 2016 Report. <http://www.theatlantic.com/politics/archive/2016/09/us-commission-civil-rights-religious-liberty-report/499874/> The stage is being set by the Federal Empire to force Christianity into a second-class status with the Empire's politicians defining what is and is not allowable as Church doctrine.

In July of this year an Iowa Civil Rights Commission issued an edict that forces churches to comply with "transgender bathroom laws." The edict even forces churches to use pronouns approved by the Civil Rights Commission and prohibits the church from teaching that non-traditional gender roles are sinful. Not to be outdone, Massachusetts' Commission Against Discrimination has declared all churches are now viewed as a place of "public accommodation" and thus must abide by the Commission's rules and regulations. According to this rule, churches cannot use "gender identity pronouns." The Commission also states that churches cannot "discriminate against, or restrict a person from, services because of that person's gender identity." Simply stated, a sexual pervert who thinks he is a woman cannot be prevented from attending a conference for women, use a woman's bathroom, or have spoken to him any remarks deemed by the pervert as being "hostile." As Peter Kirsanow, member of the U. S. Commission on Civil Rights noted: "This debate will likely dominate civil-rights discourse for at least a generation. And regardless of the outcome, we may emerge a very different country than the one we have been" [emphasis added]. A different country? The one common factor in this story is that this secular humanist attack upon Christian morality originates NOT from Dixie but from the NORTH and its agent, the Federal Empire. Southern Christians take note: "Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers." 2 Corinthians 6:14.

Nullifying Tyranny: Creating Moral Communities in an Immoral Society

- The secular humanist left is at war with our Christian values but most Christians are not aware of the war or have no idea of how to fight the seemingly overwhelming power of the politically correct left.
- Nullifying Tyranny is addressed to Christians explaining why the constitutional right of state nullification is necessary if we are to win the war against the forces of political evil arrayed against us.

BIBLE BELT DRAG QUEEN

For ages the South has been known as the “Bible Belt” of America. Numerous surveys and polls of religious attitudes in Dixie testify to the correctness of this claim. In Louisiana it is often stated that North Louisiana is the belt buckle of the Bible Belt. Yet, here in North Louisiana, the culturally corrosive hand of Yankee secular humanism boldly struck out at those holding fast to a Biblical worldview one Sunday morning in October. As Christians awoke and began preparing for church they were shocked by a front page article in their Monroe, Louisiana Sunday newspaper. The lead article, covering one-half of the front page and extending into three more pages, extolled the virtues of the homosexual “Drag Queen” lifestyle (The News-Star, Monroe, La., 10/9/16). Complete with numerous photographs of the “Queen” and his friends, the article gave a glowing account of the life of a man who always wanted to be Miss America but has to settle for competing for the title of Miss Gay America.

Most people in North Louisiana have no problem with how a person desires to express his “gender role.” Growing up in the South we always knew that some people were “odd,” but we never expected to have such behavior flaunted as if it were normal. Furthermore, we never thought that the values and customs of our society would come under attack because they were based upon a Biblical worldview. But this is exactly what happens when a Biblical worldview society is “unequally yoked together” with a secular humanist society.

At one time this immoral lifestyle was only celebrated in the radical dens of the Northeast United States. But just like the erosive effects of drops of water over years, the erosion of moral values in the Bible Belt is slowly but surely having its wicked results upon Southern culture. The erosive effects of the satanic morality of secular humanism (brought to you by Yankee victory and occupation of Dixie) will result in secular humanist morality becoming the new “norm” and social standard for subsequent generations of Southerners. Unless “we the people” of Dixie retake control of our society, Dixie will become as vulgar and crude as the rest of Yankeedom. The 1599 Geneva Bible clearly informs us, “Be not unequally yoked with the infidels: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?” 2 Corinthians 6:14. God has spoken; the hour for action is upon us.

Wherefore, come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord and touch not the unclean thing: and I will receive you, 2 Corinthians 6:17. Can “good” safely dwell with “evil?” In human society will “good” pull “evil” up, or will “evil” pull “good” down? What communion does light have with darkness? Most Christians recognize the importance of these questions in regards to spiritual life, but they are equally important socially and politically. Indeed, the answer to these questions may well determine whether or not America’s Christian moral traditions will be passed on to another generation. ### On the Skirmish Line with Uncle Seth

A despondent POW Yankee officer lamenting the inability of the numerically superior and well equipped United States Army to defeat half their numbers of starved, ill-equipped Confederate Army wrote thusly: “We had men enough, well enough equipped and well enough posted, to have devoured the ragged, imperfectly armed and equipped host of our enemies from off the face of the earth. Their artillery horses are poor, starved frames of beasts, tied on to their carriages and caissons with odds and ends of rope and strips of raw hide. Their men are an ill-dressed, ill-equipped, and ill-provisioned—set of ragamuffins that a man is ashamed to be seen among, even when he is a prisoner and can’t help it. And yet they have beaten us fairly, beaten us all to pieces, beaten us so easily that we are the objects of their contempt even to their commonest private soldiers, with no shirts to hang out of the holes in their worn pantaloons, and cartridge-boxes tied around their waists with strands of rope.”

Propagandists of the Yankee Empire would have Southerners and the people of the world to believe that these starving men fought overwhelming hordes of Yankee invaders for four long years in order to keep their slaves—when most never owned, hoped or desired to own slaves. Why then were these men fighting? They were fighting for Southern freedom; to maintain their nation’s independence; for the right to live in a country of their own based on the consent of the governed; to live under a government not dominated by arrogant Yankees; and for the right to have a government that would simply leave them alone. It is not over until freedom is won!

The book cover shows two soldiers

- One fighting to protect his family
- One coming as an invader

The book cover shows two flags

- One represents a people who ask to live in a country based upon the American principle of the consent of the governed
- One represents a people intent upon forcing their smaller neighbor to remain in a union that extracts tribute from the smaller nation for the benefit of the larger nation

The book cover represents two contending ideas

- Government must protect the nation’s border, individual liberty and leave the people alone
- Government is supreme and may use its power to establish a national and eventually international financial, commercial and military empire for the benefit of the ruling elite and their crony capitalist allies.

Southern Patriots—Act Now or Forever Hold Your Peace

It is a sad day for freedom here in the good ole U.S. of A. Today we witness the liberal establishment paying agitators to instigate violence to disrupt their opponent's rallies <http://www.breitbart.com/big-government/2016/10/19/robert-creamer-okeefe-investigation-fame-visited-obamas-whitehouse-340-times/> we live in a time when immigration has increased 900% over the last ten years causing a major increase in welfare benefits that must be paid for by hard working taxpayers <http://www.washingtonexaminer.com/illegals-seeking-asylum-up-900-get-social-security-welfare-school-loans/article/2604944> we live in a time when local school teachers feel free to teach white public school students that merely being white automatically makes you a racist <http://eagnews.org/high-schooler-records-teachers-racism-lecture-to-be-white-is-to-be-racist-period/> But have no fear, the secular humanist liberal ruling elite have set-up a system in which the financial interests on Wall Street have earned 58% profits this quarter <https://ca.news.yahoo.com/goldman-sachs-profit-jumps-58-percent-trading-revenue-114515016--sector.html> all the while the income of America's middle class has been steadily declining. If all of this is true, and unfortunately it is true, then why aren't we the people doing something about it? That is doing something other than the same thing we have been doing, the same thing that resulted in a century of conservative failure (Reclaiming Liberty, 15-43).

John Randolph of Roanoke when viewing the attempts of the Northern majority to exploit their numerical advantage and thereby infringe upon Southern rights declared that the South must resist "We shall keep on the windward side of treason...or the little (constitutional rights) upon which we now barely subsist will be taken from us."

Too often conservatives react to political victories the same way the militia so often reacted to a single victory—"we won, let's go home." Even if Trump wins, it will not be a strategic victory for constitutional government. Regardless of who wins we the people must take immediate action to reclaim our inherent, unalienable, American right to be the masters in our own homes.

Vision 20/20 offers such a plan: http://www.kennedytwins.com/newsletter\_mar16.pdf (pages 8-10)
