What Has the GOP Done for the South?

We must never forget that it was the GOP politicians in Georgia who refused to back an effort to allow the people of Georgia to decide whether to keep the Battle Flag as part of their state flag; nor should we forget that it was a Republican governor who removed CSA plaques in Texas and Republican governor who refused to endorse Confederate history month in Louisiana and it was a Republican governor who removed Confederate flags from the chambers in North Carolina where the state's secession ordinance was signed. The adjacent red and blue map demonstrates how important the South is to the GOP if they want to win the White House. But what have we gotten in return for our support? The GOP's ruling elite use conservative Southerners the same shameful way the ruling elite of the Democratic Party uses black Southern voters.

“We the people” of the once sovereign states of the Confederate States of America have the power to hold the GOP hostage until they address our interests—equal protection for our Southern heritage and submitting to the states a constitutional amendment acknowledging real states' rights—inclusive of the rights of nullification and secession.

The GOP needs us—we don't need them!

Let's Take Our Country Back!

“We the people” of America are in grave danger of losing our country and what is left of our constitutional rights and moral culture! We are in a life-and-death struggle with the forces of leftist political correctness—a gang of socialists, progressives, and liberals who now hold complete sway in both national political parties. These forces of social evil are conducting a successful campaign against our Christian moral values, symbols of our Southern heritage, and our belief in a constitutionally limited federal government. The ruling elite and their crony capitalists friends on Wall Street use the supreme federal government to dictate their will to “we the people” of once sovereign states. We are no longer citizens in a free Republic but are mere subjects who have no effectual means to counter Washington’s oppressive dictates. Simply electing “conservative” Republicans is NOT the solution—indeed has the GOP been a true friend to the South?

The GOP—A pretended friend?

If you are in a desperate struggle, which would you prefer—an acknowledged enemy at your front or a pretended friend at your side? You know what to expect from an enemy but the pretended friend may well turn on you at a critical moment in the struggle—especially if he thinks his interests would suffer by remaining loyal to you. The GOP is the conservative South’s pretended friend. They want our votes but if a true conservative candidate comes along who might threaten the status quo in Washington, then the GOP will stop at nothing to prevent the election of a true conservative. The GOP’s effort to defeat the people’s candidate by re-electing Thad Cochran in Mississippi is but one example of our pretended friends in action. The truth is that the GOP needs Southern voters but we do not need the GOP’s pretended friendship. We need to leverage this simple fact to help us gain real political clout—to become so strong that they cannot ignore our interests.

Al Sharpton has more political clout than the entire South—why?

Why do extreme leftists such as Al Sharpton or Jessie Jackson have more influence than we do? The answer is simple: They have developed political clout; they have the ability to threaten and/or punish politicians who ignore their politically correct, leftist demands, while we have no such ability. It will take more than good books, scholarly articles, and endless meetings to reclaim constitutional government enforced by real states’ rights. Time is running out for us—we need a solution and we need it now!

Traditional politics is NOT the solution!

The 2014 Senatorial campaigns in Mississippi and Louisiana demonstrated that the GOP will flood money into any campaign to prevent non-establishment candidates from winning. The primary goal of the GOP is to protect the status quo in Washington. The ruling elite of both political parties have a vested interest in maintaining the status quo that provides them with almost unlimited perks, privileges, and power. The ruling elite are too big to fail while “we the people” are too small to count. The Federal Empire’s ruling elite can overwhelm any grass roots efforts with money provided by their crony capitalist allies. The shear cost of running a traditional political campaign in the current Federal Empire has, in effect, disenfranchised all grass roots efforts to control the supreme Federal government

What is the solution?

The solution is to gain political leverage (political clout) through non-traditional political action. The solution is to engage in a form of political guerrilla warfare. We will engage the GOP in a fight that leverages our strengths while taking advantage of their weaknesses.

How do we do it? We are so few while they are so many, some may complain. But even though we states' rights Southerners are today a minority in the South—a substantial minority none-the-less—we still have the potential to nullify national GOP ambitions if they refuse to protect our interests. In essence we have the potential to hold the national GOP hostage until they meet our demands!

Vision 2020—A vote for Southern Freedom

During the 2020 presidential election each Southern state will place a ballot initiative on the general election ballot calling for a federal constitutional amendment acknowledging the States as sovereign, possessing the states' rights of nullification and secession. Imagine a world where “we the people” once again are the master in our own homes.

A new way to measure political victory

Even if our ballot initiative does not carry a single state, we still win because we have gained political clout. Our local efforts to gain ballot access for our initiative will have added numerous new supporters to our cause; we will demonstrate to the GOP that we can mobilize voters to defeat any “soft” conservative who willingly compromises with those wishing to destroy our Southern heritage; plus the national news coverage will make our cause recognizable nationwide.

Subsequent to the 2020 general election if the GOP refuses to support Southern conservative interests including protecting our heritage and submitting our states' rights constitutional amendment to the states, then we will remind them that we now have the power to nullify their presidential ambitions by simply running a presidential candidate on a third party ticket or establishing pro-Southern unpledged electors in each state in all future presidential elections. Our goal is not to win the office of president but to prevent our pretended friends from enjoying the fruits of their betrayal to the cause of a constitutionally limited federal government—constitutional limits enforced by “we the people” of the states via real states' rights. Now that's real political clout!

In the Federal Empire Your Vote No Longer Matters

The Federal Empire's ruling elite have devised a system of government in which they can control who is elected. Using their system of high dollar elections where the only way to win is to raise millions of dollars for a political campaign, they and their high dollar donors decide who "represents" you in Washington. Under this system of high dollar government (plutocracy) the interests of the elite and their friends are primary and "we the people" of the once sovereign states are secondary—if we are considered at all!

The only way for the people to win is to use non-traditional political efforts—to do an "end-run" around the elite. This is described in Nullification: Why and How.

Docile submission to the Federal Empire does not equal vindication!

Self-Government Impossible Without Real States' Rights

The U.S.A. is no longer a constitutionally limited republic. Since 1861 it has become an empire—the Federal Empire. Under the original republic “we the people” of the sovereign states were the final judge as to whether our agent, the Federal government, was acting within the authority of the Constitution. Those were the days of real states’ rights. Today we live in an empire in which the supreme federal government is the sole judge of whether it is acting within the authority of the Constitution—in other words it can do as it pleases. Nullifying Tyranny: Creating Moral Communities in an Immoral Society describes how to establish a free, moral & prosperous society.

Ever wonder why the Republican Party never defends real states' rights; why they are more concerned about the interests of the "donor" class than the taxpayer; why they never attack progressive social legislation or push through legislation repealing leftist income redistribution social programs? Who do you think would feel more at home in the Republican Party—Karl Marx or Patrick Henry? Lincoln established the first income tax—a tax supported by communist and socialists and used the force of a centralized nation/state to enforce his new world order. Patrick Henry believed in liberty and declared "The first thing I have at heart is American liberty, the second thing is American union." Lincoln's Republican Party had numerous influential socialists and communists who worked with him to promote their dream of a supreme, centralized Federal government controlled by ruling elites in Washington, D.C.

Lincoln's Marxists - the GOP's worst nightmare.

Sharecropping: Post War Slavery in Dixie

Did Lincoln free the slaves? Did the virtuous North fight the War to end slavery in America? Were free white and black Southerners better off after Yankee invasion, conquest, exploitation and occupation?

Representative Thaddeus Stevens (R-Penn.) declared in Congress that the United States military was invading the South "with a sword in one hand and shackles in the other." Indeed the Northern majority did fix economic "shackles" upon the South—both white and black Southerners were forced into a new form of slavery as a result of Yankee victory—Freedom has no substitute. All Southerners would have been better off in a Free South—the Confederate States of America.

1930s

Over 8 million Southerners reduced to tenant farming, 60% were white. It was a form of slavery created by the victorious Federal Empire.
