Into the Lion’s Den—Leadership Matters

Donnie Kennedy to Address SCV Heritage Luncheon in Richmond, VA

You don’t want to miss Donnie’s dynamic and challenging address at the SCV’s Heritage Luncheon July 16th in Richmond. He will challenge the SCV to abandon Heritage Defense—we can no longer afford to fight a defensive battle—it’s time for a new/audacious strategy! We cannot win by doing the same things we have always done! With the right strategy and leaders—Victory is possible!

The Constitution and Slavery

The screeching cry of “flag of slavery” from the throats of left wing bigots and p. c. sell-outs (better known as Republicans) that has dominated the news for the past few weeks is hopefully abating. Nevertheless, the radical leftists have been very successful not only in corrupting the good name of the Confederate Flag but also have set the foundation for their final act, the removal of The Constitution. By sullyng the Confederate Flag with the tar-brush of slavery and making it odious because of its real or even un-real association with slavery the left won a great victory. Now that “America” has been taught that anything that is associated with slavery must be destroyed, all the left has to do to remove an object (Jefferson Memorial), principle (local government, i.e., State’s Rights), or document (The Constitution) is to demonstrate its connection with slavery.

To “prove” the connection of slavery with the Confederate Battle Flag, liberals had to jump through many hoops. Facts had to be invented, truth refused a hearing, and reality set aside. Yet, even with these obstacles, the neo-Marxist crowd was very successful. The Constitution of the United States is a completely different matter. Its association with slavery is so visible and so obvious as to make a radical leftist’s heart palpitate with hate. There are three places in the Constitution where slavery is recognized and protected. In Article I, Section 2, slaves are counted as 3/5’s value of free men. The South wanted slaves to be counted as any other non-voting member of the population; the North wanted slaves to be counted as cattle. The South was forced to compromise with the North and yet we are told the South was responsible for the 3/5’s rule and all Confederate Flags must come down! In Art. I Sec. 9, the African Slave Trade is protected from Congressional action for 20 year. Southern States demanded the immediate end of the African Slave Trade; the North wanted to protect its nefarious trade; the South compromised with the North and of course as we know, all Confederate Flags must come down. In Art. IV, Sec. 2, the states agree to return all runaway slaves that escaped into their state. This is a direct copy of the first Fugitive Slave Law enacted in America by the United Colonies of New England, 1664. Both Northern and Southern States took advantage of this section of the Constitution but of course the South is at fault and all Confederate Flags must come down!

Up until now, most leftists would deal with these sections as if they were the product of the evil slave holders of the South. But now (thanks to Nicki Haley) they have a grand opportunity to shame and discredit the one document that has stood in their way of creating the ultimate big government—The Constitution. Nothing is safe from the wrath of the p.c. Gestapo, the Constitution, our churches, our guns our everything—all thanks to spineless political whores who are more than willing to sell themselves to the highest bidder of the ruling elite in the Federal Empire. And maybe even get a shot at the Republican V/P position.

Politics Makes For Some Strange Bed Fellows
BUT
WHY IS THIS WOMAN IN BED WITH THESE TWO MEN?

As pointed out in 'Lincoln's Marxists,' the Republican Party has a long and not so healthy connection with radical socialists and communists. Marx was one of the first political leaders who promoted the false narrative that the South was fighting to promote and protect the institution of slavery. Fast forward to 2015 where Al Sharpton is leading the charge for destroying everything Confederate because of its connection with slavery. Sharpton and his leftist allies had little chance of victory until the pretended friends of the South, aka, Republicans, came to their defense with the cry of "Confederate Flag is symbol of racism and slavery." Nikki Haley had no problem in slipping into the political bed with Marx and Sharpton for after all, they all believe in big government—the only argument is how big and who is going to control the big government. Haley has now firmly secured for herself a place in the Republican establishment: she is a minority (female), she is non-white (Indian—East not West), and she has trampled upon the Confederate Flag, thus proving her loyalty to the established order in the Federal Empire. People who crawl into bed with two strangers, people who sell themselves for profit and people who use others to promote themselves are known as "whores," regardless whether they are selling themselves in a bordello or political office!

Genocide is a coordinated plan of different actions aiming at the destruction of essential foundations of the life of groups, with the aim of annihilating the group. The object would be the destruction of political & social institutions of culture, language, national or regional feelings, religion, and the economic existence of the group. They did it to the Indians, the Hawaiians and now we are next! Your heritage, guns, religion—they want to destroy it all!

Cultural Genocide-See We Told You So!
Chapter 13 of The South Was Right! is titled "The Yankee Campaign of Cultural Genocide." When we wrote the 2nd edition in 1994 many "moderates" accused the Kennedy Twins of being radical, extreme & un-American! Current events demonstrate that there is an active effort by the left to destroy the traditional conservative South. There is a solution-but it takes courage—Victory in 2020.

If the South Were a Free Nation What Kind of Government Would It Have?

Have you ever thought about what kind of government we would have if the South was a free and independent nation? Hopefully we would avoid the problems that the current Federal government has created. For one thing instead of stressing the importance of “equality” I would prefer a government that stresses individual liberty—a government that would simply leave us alone. In Reclaiming Liberty such a government is called a “liberty based society.”

Here are some of the high points of a liberty based society:

- Total taxation (Federal, State, & local) is no more than 10%
- Inflation and boom/bust economic cycles are prevented by eliminating the Federal Reserve and using market determined money
- Specific, non arbitrary voting qualifications are established such as high school completion etc, not on public assistance, and must not be a felon.
- Strong military based within the South, no entangling foreign alliances, no troops based on foreign soil—Southerners do not go around the world seeking monsters to destroy—but if they come here we destroy them and from whence they came
- Use our natural resources such as offshore oil to pay off Social Security & VA obligations and relieve younger generations of this burden
- Education and healthcare are private based—remember that your “take home” pay has been greatly increased due to decreased tax liability vs. what you pay today.

Next time some deluded person tells you that the USA is the best nation in the world—tell them that “I have a dream” of a better country, a country of our own and indeed a better world.

How Can We Regain Constitutionally Limited Government?

The dream of a free South may be just that but “we the people” of the once sovereign States of Dixie should never give up on our dream of a restored, constitutionally limited Republic of Republics—the government that was handed down to us from our Colonial Founding Fathers.

The Vision 2020 project is part of the effort to restore real states’ rights to America. Go back and read the April and May newsletters to learn more of this daring plan. Go to: <http://www.kennedytwins.com/archives.htm>

The April newsletter is of special interest considering what the GOP has done to us lately. Remember we have the power to hold the GOP hostage if we plan and act appropriately between today and general election day 2020.

If we regain real states’ rights we will regain liberty lost at Appomattox. 2020—Freedom is closer than you think!

Who Is Uncle Seth? Why Are His Stories Important for Southerners Today?

The book cover's artwork shows two soldiers in mortal combat. One soldier is an invader the other is defending his people from the invader's torch, the murder and rape that always follows imperial armies as they attempt to dominate folks who only ask to be left alone. There are two flags. One represents an empire bent on dominating its smaller neighbor and exploiting its neighboring nation's resources. The other flag represents a people fighting to prevent becoming slaves to an evil empire. One flag represents freedom the other slavery—Uncle Seth tells the truth about the War for Southern Independence and how it still impacts us today.

O, my! This is Boston, Massachusetts 1976 during the force busing riots. The riots lasted days and as you can see this White Bostonian is going after a Black man using NOT the Confederate Flag but the United States Flag. Maybe we should get rid of that racist symbol also! Are you listening Nicki Haley? As a typical Southern politician you seem willing to prostitute yourself to any hate group that may help you get a few votes!

“The further a society drifts away from the truth, the more it will hate those that speak it.”
George Orwell

Are Southerners Citizens in a Free Country

Or

The recent spasm of politically correct anti-South bigotry has had one good impact—it forces Southerners to question their standing in this our “re-united” nation. The anti-South bigots have boldly demonstrated that while this nation claims to be a nation “with liberty and justice for all” if you are a traditional conservative Southerner then you need to not merely step to the back of the bus—you are thrown off the bus! All of this is done amid the enthusiastic cheering of leftist bigots and Southern Republican scalawags.

In order to exterminate a people, you must first dehumanize them; make them odious in the eyes of your followers. Once this is done then it is not only acceptable to exterminate them but it would be evil not to rid the world of such odious vermin. The current round of anti-South cultural genocide is not new. Generals Sherman & Sheridan, as well as Republican Congressman Thaddeus Stevens spoke of eliminating their Southern enemies even using the word “exterminate” to describe what they wanted to do to the people of the South.

What most of our people do not understand is that it is not the Confederate Flag that the leftists are after; it is everything that defines the conservative, religious, individualist, small government loving South. Our guns, our Bibles, our love of freedom, our desire for a government that will simply protect our borders and leave us alone—all are targets for leftist extermination.

In a free country the government fears its citizens because politicians understand that the free citizen will remove from office any politician who violates his duty to protect the people from the arbitrary use of government power. But in an empire the subjects fear the government because they know that the government is supreme and can “justify” any actions it elects to take against any troublesome subject.

In a free country the government is limited and ultimate power is held by “we the people” within our sovereign states. The people can count on real states’ rights to protect them from an abusive central government.

In an empire the people are ruled by an established ruling elite. The primary purpose of the elite is to protect their source of power, perks, and privileges. The ruling elite has a cadre of crony capitalists that provides them with financial backing in exchange for favored treatment—thereby violating open competition, the essential principle of free market capitalism.

Are Southerners citizens or subjects?

How Would Your Family Like an Extra $14,974.00 Each Year?

According to economist D. Brady Nelson this is the annual cost to every family in America for government regulations. This would not happen in a Liberty Based Society. Read his article:
